

Staff Profile:

Rochelle Ciccone

Rochelle joined Grimsey in 2016 as our Senior Tax Manager. Rochelle had previously held a senior management role at Bongiorno's where she was responsible for the taxation requirements of companies, trusts, partnerships and individuals. With her experience boasting over twelve years of accounting knowledge, Rochelle has brought new and interesting ways of working to our tax team and is already making improvements to our client experience.

Rochelle had a desire to work in the tax and accounting fields since she was young, showing strength in mathematics and a love of all things relating to numbers. Completing her Bachelor in Business & Accounting, Banking & Finance, Rochelle entered the industry as an assistant accountant. After a short time, Rochelle moved into an accounting role and decided to pursue additional qualifications which would place her in good stead for future career development. Rochelle has a Certificate IV in Finance & Mortgage Broking and is also a qualified CPA member. Additionally, Rochelle has recently completed a Diploma of Financial Planning which allows her to offer clients a comprehensive financial experience.

Rochelle spent over twelve years with Bongiorno's, where she became the 2IC to the founding partner. In this role, she was responsible for managing the junior staff within the tax team in addition to her work with clients and their taxation requirements. Finding she had excellent skills in mentoring younger accountants, Rochelle took this time to hone these skills in preparation for her future in management roles.

We have welcomed Rochelle to the Grimsey team this year and she is already becoming invaluable. Rochelle has developed a great working relationship with her team of accountants and enjoys interacting with the various facets of our diverse business. Rochelle has taken a particular interest in Financial Planning given her ongoing study in this area.

Outside of the office, Rochelle has two children - Max aged seven and Ivy who is 16 months. With a passion for cooking, Rochelle loves nothing more than to cook with her kids and sit down to enjoy a meal with her family. Rochelle's family also consists of her two dogs who are an important part of her home life given her love of animals. Rochelle has a positive attitude to all areas of her life, maintaining her desire to laugh openly and live in the moment and she has brought this positive approach her to role at Grimsey.

Rochelle looks forward to developing close working relationships with her clients and becoming a trusted advisor to many of our long time Grimsey patrons. Rochelle is always available to speak with you if you have any tax or financial queries and she can be contacted on (03) 8341 8888 or via email at rochelle@grimsey.com.au
